Although the personnel of the club is made up largely of members of the Emerson course in efficiency given at the Y. M. C. NEWTOWN G.O.P. LEADERS SCRAP IN TOWN CAUCUS

Younger Element Puts Up Fight For Registrar of Voters Job.

(Special to The Farmer.)
Newtown, Sept. 13.—The Republican caucus for town officers Monday night was enlivened by a contest. Charles G. Peck, who is the wardman of the borough, has held the position of Republican registrar of the town. The gauge of battle was thrown down by Rodney Shepard and the young Republicans behind him scored 26 votes against 36 for Peck in the largest Republican caucus held here in many years.

The contest is made interesting to Democrats by the fact that it disclosed a serious note of discord in the personnel of the Republican town committee. Back of Shepard was William M. Reynolds, the chairman of the town committee, while the other four members stood pat for Peck. The excitement reached white heat at one time in the caucus, and a timely adjournment prevented an open break.

As it was, the Republicans from the outlying districts are loud in complaint over the make-up of the ticket, maintaining that the important officers nominated are all from the Center.

There was no contest in the selection of nominees for selectmen, but the rest of the ticket showed smoldering opposition which almost culminated in revolt over the contest for registrar of voters in the First district. The ticket selected is as follows: Assessor—R. W. Wheeler.
Board of Relief—R. H. Beers, three years; Charles N. Beresford, to fill vacancy.
Selectmen—W. B. Glover and N. M. Curtis.

Auditor—W. Finch.
Grand Jurors—P. H. Gannon and C. L. Page.
Tax Collector—John F. Houlihan.
Constables—C. P. Johnson, William Gower, E. K. Thrall, Jr., and Thomas Carlson.

Registrars of Voters—First district, Charles B. Peck; Second district, L. P. Briscoe.
High School Committee—A. P. Smith and H. N. Tiemann, Sr.
School Visitor—H. N. Tiemann, Sr., three years.

Fairfield, Sept. 13.—The Democrats and Republicans of Fairfield held their caucuses Monday evening at the town hall. The Democrats went in session at 7:30 and the Republicans at 8 o'clock. Both meetings were well attended. William Kinsella, Democratic candidate for town school committee, was nominated for the 15th year. Following are the Democratic nominees: Assessor, Herbert Smith; first selectman, H. R. Elwood; second selectman, William London; town treasurer, William O. Burr; tax collector, to be named later by the town committee; board of relief, Hanford W. Lyons; constables, H. R. Elwood, Fred Volderaner, Henry Hawkins and John McGarry; grand jurors, Howard Gray, Edward J. Flanagan, Hanford W. Lyons and Fred B. Banks; town school committee, Simeon E. Pease; town auditor, Robert Hitchcock.

GENERAL PERSHING

Brig.-Gen. John Joseph Pershing, the officer chosen to lead the American expedition into Mexico, was born in Lincoln, Mass., on Sept. 15, 1859. He has been a soldier for thirty years, having graduated from West Point in 1880. They have been years of achievement and action, and he well deserved the reward he gained a decade ago when President Roosevelt promoted him to the rank of brigadier-general, jumping him over the heads of 862 other officers—the record jump in the United States army and, perhaps, in any army.

Gen. Pershing's first experience of warfare came soon after his graduation from West Point, in the Mexican campaign against Geronimo and his Apaches. Later he fought the hostile Sioux in the Dakotas, commanding the Indian scouts. In the Spanish-American war he was the commander of a regiment of negro warriors, and on the praise of his superiors as one of the coolest and bravest of the American officers. Upon his return to the States he was sent to Washington to organize the Bureau of Insular Affairs, of which he was the first chief. He then went to the Philippines, where he was given the difficult job of subduing the Moros. He returned from the Far East early in 1914 and was then sent to the Mexican border. His knowledge of the country and his recognized ability and bravery made him the logical choice for the command of the expedition into the wilds of northern Mexico.

A little more than a year ago Gen. Pershing suffered a terrible and tragic loss in the death of his wife and three of their four children. Mrs. Pershing, who was a daughter of Senator Warren of Wyoming, and the children were all killed in a fire in their quarters at the Fredrick Hotel in San Francisco. Warren, the youngest of the Pershing children, was quickly revived, but his mother and three little sisters were dead when rescuers reached them.

Gen. Pershing is an advocate of universal military service in the United States. He holds that no system based upon voluntary enlistment will provide enough soldiers if America should ever become involved in a great war. Every able-bodied youth, he declares, should receive military training, so as to be able to defend his country in time of need.

Summary OF THE War News

Instead of resting on the ground won in yesterday's great attack north of the Somme the French continued their thrust last night, capturing the village of Bouchavesnes and a wooded area nearby.

Bouchavesnes lies to the east of the Bapaume-Peronne road, cut in yesterday's drive and its capture with adjacent territory apparently clinched French possession of this main highway to Peronne from the north.

Combes is now cut off from the south and in a dangerous salient, while General Peche is in a favorite position for a stroke from the north of Peronne which seems seriously threatened by the new advance of the French.

The British, who hold the lines northwest of Combes, are maintaining a firm grip on Ginchey, but have as yet apparently made no attempt to gain further ground to the east.

In Macedonia the entente offensive is developing, notably along the western sector of the front. Athens announced a joint advance by French and Serbian troops.

The Zaimis cabinet in Greece is out of office with the acceptance of the resignations of its members by King Constantine.

From Bucharest comes official announcement of a continued retreat of the Austrians before Rumanian pressure in Transylvania.

Official VIEWS OF World's War

BRITISH

London, Sept. 13.—"The general situation is unchanged," says today's official statement in regard to the Franco-Belgian front. "There is nothing of importance to report."

"On the north and northwest front the enemy continues to retreat westward in the valleys of the upper Maros and Aluta River.

"On the south front the navigation of enemy merchant ships on the Danube has been stopped. On the Dobruja front, operations are progressing. Enemy aeroplanes bombarded the towns of Platina and Neamtzu, killing an old man and seriously wounding two infants."

Thousands Witness Dress Rehearsal of Shakespeare Masque

Interest in Dr. Louis Smirnow's "Masque of Shakespeare" is growing every hour, and fully a thousand persons watched the dress rehearsal with lights full on as the various scenes tried over and over again upon the green sward of the most beautiful part of Beardsley park. Beside the persons on the recently constructed grandstand, hundreds of motorists watched the rehearsal. The voices of the actors carry well beyond the nearby road, and people in the farthest automobile on the road could hear distinctly what was said.

By far the greatest interest is centered upon the two supernatural beings, Imp and Ariel, who in criticism admit, are peers in their line. It must be remembered that these two wonderful characters must take up the gauntlet not alone of the amateurs in the cast, but also of the professionals of whom there are not a few in this production. The first is Alexander Leftwich, the director of the Masque, who is the leading man, and second to him is Gerlad Pring, an actor well known on Broadway, who plays Prince Henry. Then there is Miss Wylda Millison of the Madame Fick Co., playing Queen Elizabeth, in the Prologue as the actor, and Obscurely in the second act. Beside her there is Mrs. Gerlad Pring, the wife of Mr. Pring, who plays the role of Anne Boleyn, and with her a number of other actors and professional dramatic critics have come to witness the rehearsal and will stay to the first performance. They have pronounced themselves in no uncertain terms that Thomas F. Willmore as Imp and Miss Florence Davidson as Ariel are superb and perfect in their roles.

Following is a list of the patrons and patronesses of the Masque who have thus far subscribed to boxes or who have otherwise contributed to defray the expense of this production:

Mrs. Dever H. Warner, Mrs. L. T. Warner, Mrs. I. Dever Warner, Mrs. E. P. Bullard, Jr., Mrs. John T. King, Mrs. J. H. Van Tassel, Mrs. John C. Curtis, Mrs. E. W. Harrah, Mrs. F. L. Bagtram, Mrs. W. A. Grippin, Mrs. Jonathan Godfrey, Mrs. M. Ford, Mrs. M. J. Collins of West Haven, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Eames, Mr. and Mrs. C. Barnum Seelye, Judge Morris S. A number of manufacturers have purchased reserved seats for the support of the production. The names of the rest of the donors will be announced later.

The public is reminded that there is only one day left before the first performance, and the time for purchasing reserved seats is short. Nearly all the boxes for the first night have been sold. Only one or two are left. Tickets for the second and third nights.

ARMOR PLANT SITE HEARINGS BEGUN

Washington, Sept. 13.—Hearings on the question of a site for the proposed government armor plate factory was begun before Secretary Daniels and other navy department officials today. Representatives of chambers of commerce and other organizations urged the advantages of their respective cities.

The proposed armor plant was provided for in the recent naval appropriation act at a cost not to exceed $11,000,000.

Cramped For Room, Machinists Can't Find Place For Home

Plans for the Machinists' Home, funds for which have been raised by the members of the two locals in this city, have been interrupted by the inability of the union to find a suitable building which may be purchased for the purpose.

Arrangements that were being made for a centrally-located structure failed to result in a deal. A committee is still seeking a building.

Although the union prefers to buy a structure, it is possible conditions will make it necessary to build. The size of the union, makes it harder daily to accommodate the present quarters to the needs of the members.

The rooms at 27 Cannon street are now used merely for the executive offices and recreation rooms. Hilbertian hall has been obtained for a temporary meeting place, because the union had outgrown the hall on Cannon street.

WOMAN, RUN DOWN BY AUTO, REFUSES NAME

A woman struck by the automobile driven by Abraham Solorow of 68 Bostwick avenue on North Main street last night, refused to give her name, according to Mr. Solorow's report to the police. She took her to a physician who stated that she was injured.
